

VISION

A WORLD IN WHICH EVERYONE IS FREE TO MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT THEIR OWN BODIES AND SEXUALITY.

IMPACT GOALS

Political, legal and financial policy decisions in Sweden and globally promote SRHR and sustainable development for all people notwithstanding, their power and resources.

Norms and attitudes in Sweden and globally afford people greater opportunities to enjoy and make decisions about their bodies and sexuality.

People in Sweden and globally, notwithstanding their power and resources, have:

– improved access to qualitative and equal sexual and reproductive care.

– more opportunities to organize and influence sexual and reproductive health and rights.

– increased knowledge about bodies and sexuality.

PRIORITY GOALS

- ▶ Norms about the body, sexuality and relationships create enhanced and equal conditions for desire and pleasure, and are not limited by any power structure.
- ▶ SRHR actors and other social justice movements jointly mobilise for sustainable development from an SRHR perspective.
- ▶ A strong and independent civil society supports SRHR and expands democratic space.
- ▶ More people have more opportunities to live, form relationships, and start a family in the manner they wish without being hindered by discriminatory legislation or restrictive norms.
- ▶ Improved access to quality and equal sexual and reproductive healthcare for all people, notwithstanding power and resources.
- ▶ More children and young people, notwithstanding power and resources, have equal access to sexuality education and knowledge about sexuality, the body, and relationships.
- ▶ More people, notwithstanding power and resources, have access to legal and safe abortion, and abortion stigma has decreased.
- ▶ More people, notwithstanding power and resources, have access to and knowledge of contraception.
- ▶ People's sexual and reproductive health and rights are characterised by equality and consent and are not limited by gender-based violence, harmful practices, or honour-related violence and oppression.

MISSION

THROUGH KNOWLEDGE, POLICY ADVOCACY, MOBILISATION AND ORGANISATION, RFSU CONTRIBUTES TO A WORLD IN WHICH EVERYONE IS FREE TO ENJOY AND MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT THEIR OWN BODIES AND SEXUALITY.

METHODS

KNOWLEDGE

Build knowledge and empower people to know their body sexuality and relationships.

MOBILISATION AND ORGANISATION

Mobilise and organise for sexual and reproductive justice.

POLICY ADVOCACY

Contribute to and advocate for laws, frameworks and systems and hold duty-bearers to account.

ORGANISATIONAL GOALS

Mobilisation and Organisation

RFSU has a growing membership movement throughout Sweden, where people with different perspectives and experiences organise and mobilise for everyone's right to decide over their own body and sexuality.

RFSU contributes to an expanded democratic space by collaborating with a diverse range of actors.

RFSU stands in solidarity with other social justice movements.

RFSU values the knowledge of its members and enables sustainable and long-term engagement by elected representatives, members and others, who are engaged in RFSU's work.

Policy advocacy and Influence

RFSU engages in policy advocacy at the local, national and international levels.

RFSU's actions are premised on creating opportunities for civil society to take action and have influence locally, nationally and internationally.

RFSU creates opportunities for visibility and influence for people who are affected by political decisions on SRHR.

Credibility and Identity

RFSU's work is based on evidence and experience, and RFSU is recognised as a knowledgeable, nuanced, and courageous actor within SRHR.

RFSU has a strong brand and communicates as "one RFSU".

RFSU's various branches and work strengthen one another through increased internal cooperation and dialogue.

Knowledge and Method Development

RFSU develops and spreads new knowledge, as well as innovative methods through its work.

RFSU also participates in and contributes to research.

RFSU increases its knowledge of and utilises intersectional feminist, disability rights, and anti-racist perspectives across all its areas of work.

Independence and Autonomy

RFSU strengthens its independence and reduces its financial vulnerabilities by increasing its number of income sources and self-financing for its work.

RFSU manages its own capital in a long-term and sustainable way.
